MOTION TO ALLOW PARTICIPATION AT TRIAL REGARDING CONFIRMATION OF DEBTOR'S PLAN OF ADJUSTMENT
ORAL ARGUMENT REQUESTED

NOW COMES, Creditor Dennis Taubitz in pro per and for his Motion to Allow Participation At trial Regarding Confirmation of Debtor's Plan of Adjustment states as follows:

1. This Creditor never agreed to be represented by the "Retiree Committee", contrary to Debtor's fraudulent representation.
2. Creditor filed timely Objections to Debtor's eligibility and to Debtor's Plan of Adjustment, including the Debtor's Fourth and Fifth Amended Plan of Adjustment of the Debts of the City of Detroit.
3. Also, Creditor filed a Motion to Participate in any negotiation or mediation that sought to impair this Creditor's rights and interest.
4. This Court, however, improperly denied this Creditor's Motion to Participate in the eligibility trial and in the following negotiations and mediation which resulted in some creditors settling with the Debtor.

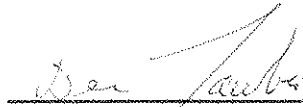

5. This Court improperly denied the due process rights of the Creditor by disallowing Creditor from participating in the trial, negotiations and mediations.
6. Indeed, this Court's violation of the Creditor's due process rights continues. This Court entered its "Order Regarding Participation at the Confirmation Hearing by Creditors Who Filed Objections Without an Attorney" dated August 7, 2014; and this Creditor did not receive the Order until several days later. The Court's requirement that a motion to participate in the Confirmation Hearing be filed by August 18, 2014 does not constitute fair notice. This Court has repeatedly sought to move this case quickly to the detriment of the due process rights of the Creditor.
7. Further paragraph 3 of this Court's Order places undue restriction upon the creditors.
8. This Court seeks to discriminate against in pro per creditors as creditors represented by counsel do not have to file a motion in order to participate in the Confirmation Hearing.
9. This Court also states in its Order "In an effort to address both the rights of those objecting creditors to be heard and the necessity of orderly process". This is another clear indication that this Court is continuing to ignore the basic fundamental legal concept of due process. Clearly, It is the ability of the Creditor to have fair notice and a fair hearing before a competent tribunal that is important. It does not matter if by providing the Creditor's with due process, a less than orderly process results.
10. Additionally, this Court in its Order states: "It is hereby ordered that the following procedures shall apply to any such Creditor's request to present evidence at the Confirmation Hearing by either (1) presenting his or her own witness (including himself or herself) or (2) questioning other parties or witnesses". Creditor submits that creditors are indeed parties to this litigation, and as a party have the absolute right to testify as their own witness and to question any other witness.

11. This Creditor submits that the Court's Order in question should be held null and void as it violates the due process rights of the creditors.
12. Creditor, without waiving any of its objections to the order in question submits the following in his Motion to Allow Participation at Trial Regarding Confirmation of the Debtor's Plan of Adjustment:
 - 12a. See Creditor's Witness List.
 - 12b. The Debtor's Plan is not Confirmable.
 - 12c. As Creditor has no idea how long the cross examination of the witnesses will take place, Creditor is unable to specify the length of time each testimony will take.
 - 12d. In light of the Court's failure to ensure due process, this Creditor is unable to determine what evidence other creditors may choose to utilize and therefore whether it is duplicative. However, this Court should be aware that each creditor is a party to this action and due process requires that a party be allowed to present evidence that they deem important and relevant to the case. The fact that the evidence may be duplicative is irrelevant.
 - 12e. See Creditor's Exhibit List.
13. This Creditor submits that this Creditor and any other creditor who desires must be allowed to participate in the confirmation hearing due to the requirement of due process.
14. This Creditor will submit a trial brief prior to the commencement of the Confirmation Hearing.

WHEREFORE, Creditor Dennis Taubitz prays that this Court grant Creditor's Motion to Allow Participation at Trial Regarding Confirmation of the Debtor's Plan of Adjustment.

Respectfully submitted,

BRIEF IN SUPPORT

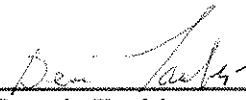

Due process consists of fair notice and a fair hearing before a competent tribunal.

This Creditor submits that a fair hearing is a hearing that one is allowed to fully participate in. Conversely, the Creditor submits that if one is not allowed to participate, the hearing must be deemed unfair.

This Creditor submits that his due process rights are being violated and will continue to be violated until he is allowed to participate in the Debtor's trial regarding the Confirmation hearing.

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, this Creditor respectfully prays that this Honorable Court grant Creditor's Motion to Allow Participation at Trial Regarding Confirmation of the Debtor's Plan of Adjustment.

Respectfully submitted,
